BEHIND BARBED WIRE IN KOREA

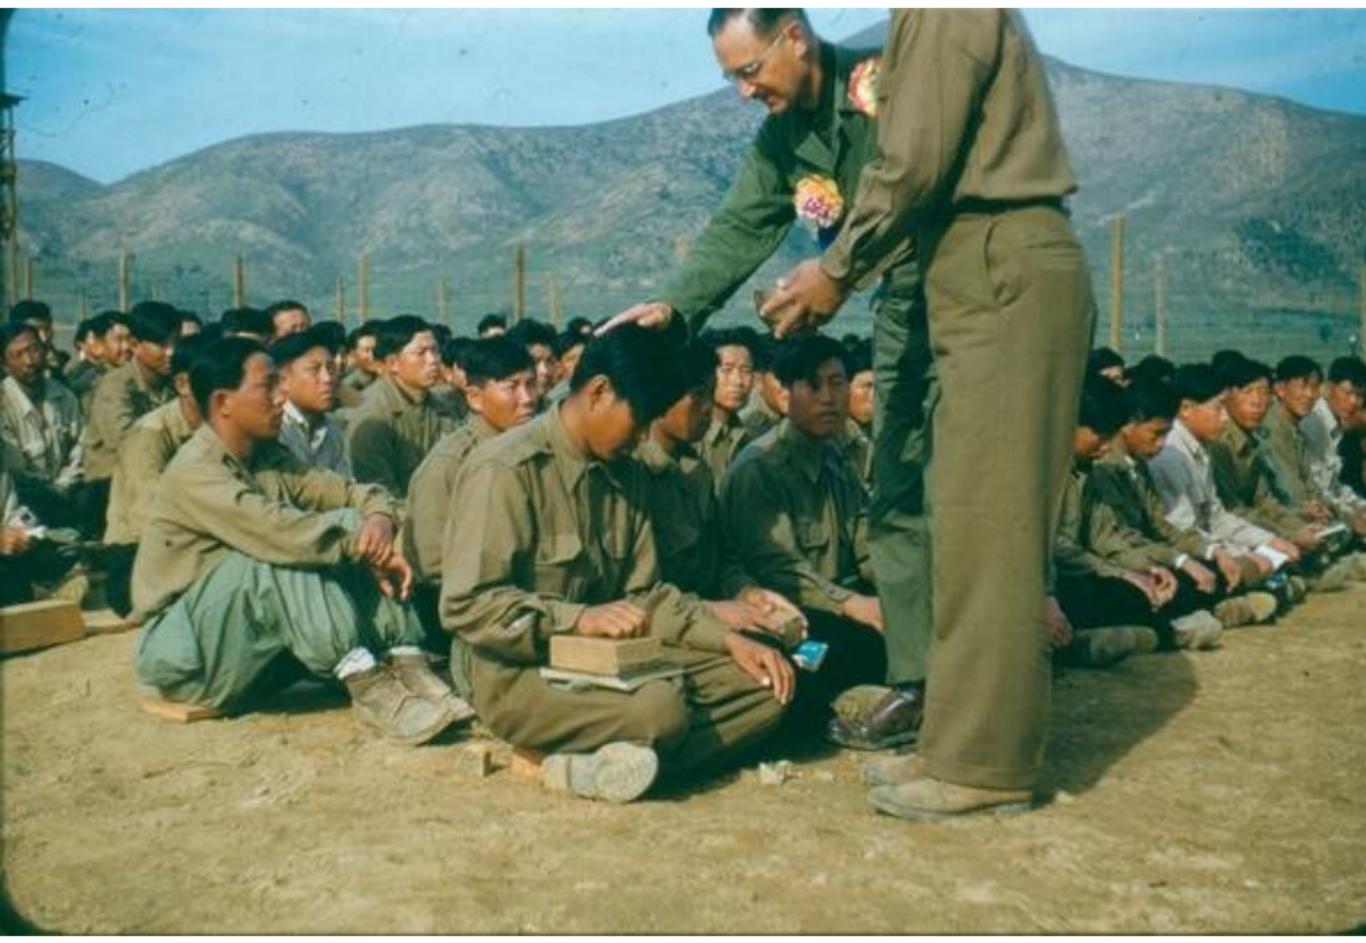

BY CHAPLAIN Harold Voelkel

*You will thrill with many at the power of our God
to change a rank Communist into a glorious Christian.*

Choir at daily daybreak POW prayer meeting.

Introduction by BILLY GRAHAM

Major Donald Nichols

Working with Korean Allies, I had to maintain an air of detachment —even approval— as I watched them “improve upon an ancient ritual of Christendom.” I will never be able to erase the memory of a man tied to a wooden cross, his arms outstretched. A thin copper wire coiled on one finger on each hand and connected to a hand cranked field telephone. Within moments after the sergeant began cranking, the victim began to scream the answers we had been seeking.
